KPFK FOLIO

IN YOUR EAR

No more America in mournful strain
Of wrongs, and grievances unredress'd complain,
No longer shalt Thou dread the iron chain,
Which wanton tyranny with lawless head
Has made, and with it meant t'enslave the land.
Should you, my Lord, while you peruse my song,
Wonder from whence my love of Freedom sprung,
Whence flow these wishes for the common good,
By feeling hearts along best understood,
I, young in life, by seeming cruel of fate
Was snatched from Afric's fancy'd happy seat.
What pangs excruciating must molest
What sorrows labour in my parent's breast?
Steel'd was that soul and by no misery mov'd
That from a father seized his babe below'd
Such, such is my case. And can I then but pray
Others may never feel tyrannic sway?

In the above 18th century poem, explains from whence her "love of Freedom" Black History month KPFK will, in the freedom which has been one of the Americans to their country. We will that explored black American politics check FOLIO listings for our Black History Month Fund Drive.
